THE BLOOMFIELD CITIZEN.

The Fountain.

The fountain in the Centre is a disgrace to the town. The fountain is usually used as a symbol of purity but one contemplating the one in the Centre, would be obliged to admit that its appearance savors rather of an all night-debauch. Anyone who has ever observed a pothouse politicain wending his way home in the early morning hours, after a night's enterwell fixed boss, could not help feeling that the Bloomfield fountain would NOVELTIES. be a most appropriate place for him to stop and slake his raging thirst and cool and his burning head. Our prompt attention. early morning house-seeker could not help having a sort of fellow-feeling with our battered fountain. Observing its top hamper knocked-all on one side, its side all full of holes and bespattered with mud, its sloppy surroundings and its generally disreputable appearance, his disordered imagination might well lead him to believe that the fountain itself had been making a night of it.

It is almost enough to make one forswear the use of water to be obliged to come in daily contact with that dirty, disjointed cauldron surrounding the lamppost in the Centre. The Prohibitionists should hold a meeting at once and denounce it as a drunken Acid, Carbolic, crude, per lb. and disorderly character tending to bring water into disrepute, to lead astray our young men and to bring a Borax, whole or powdered, per lb. time honored symbol of morals into contempt. The Reform Club should take steps to prevent the rake, corner - Chloride Lime, in packages, per lb. loafer and debauchee from maintaining any longer in our midst an emblem of their own evil selves and Flaxseed, whole or ground, per lb... practices. Owners of carriages should protest against the continuance of a Paregoric, per pint. never drying mud puddle at the point of intersection of our principal Thoroughfares which precludes the possibility of driving with clean wheels even in the dryest of weather. Pedestrians should demand the privilege of reaching our principal station with boots and shoes unsoiled with mud and dust both at the same time. Lastly it seems to us that the Township Committee should forcibly eject that fountain from the prominent position which it has so disgraced-It was a swindle from the very start. Those who heard the glowing description of the countain that was to be, from the representative of the Horse car company, would never have recognized it in that ridiculous cast iron pot with a solitary gas lamp protruding from it. It is impossible to suppose that the Township Committee would eyer have relieved the railroad company front a hundred feet or more of bridge for the purpose of obtaining a drinking trough for the use of the teamsters of Essex county which would not do credit to a county tav-

We do not know what the Township is in a position to compel the railroad company to do under the circumstances, but we should be in favor of putting the screws to it for the purpose of calling it to book for this barefaced evasion of its agreement. In any case, whatever be the situation as to the railroad company, we think that for the credit of the town, the comfort of our citizens and impressions upon visitors and strangers, the

would be presumptious for me to express | bottle an opinion upon public matters, were it not for the fact that I have come into the" town "to stay" and so feel justified in WM. COLFAX, Grocer, Bloomfield. airing my opinions. When I was out BALDWIN BROS., Grocers, Bloomfield. prospecting, somehow I never struck a WM. H. COOK, Grocer, Watsessing train either way but what came straight through without change. Embarking on the 6.20 A. M. train I find myself with a numerous host thrust out at Roseville. and made to scramble for a seat in the regular train. The 7.16 A. M. train has a notion of getting into Hoboken just in o. time to see the Barclay street boat go out, so often, that it looks as if it was to be the regular thing. Of course, waiting for the next boat gives the numerous passengers an opportunity to cultivate the virtue of potience. Then again the 6. P. M. is made up of a Morristown express with three rear coaches for the Bloomfield branch. At Newark we have the pleasure seeing the train broke into, and the Bloomfield portion will often have an engine hooked on to its rear, and pulled way back to Harrison. Anywhere from five to fifteen minutes is used up in this nonsensical way, so that the train never has got into Bloomfield on time, even if the schedule was made."

I contend that the citizens of "our town" are not treated with the respect that is due them. Enough people travel on the Bloomfield branch to entitle them to through trains without change or de lay. There should be no tumbling out a Roseville in all sorts of weather, nor should there be the humbug at Newark of breaking a train in twain, and the delay occasioned by putting an engine on there. I know I echo the voice of many who are obliged to use these trains spoken of. I am satisfied that all that is necessary to have these evils corrected is for your paper to wield the cudgel as you always do in the interest of our town. Z It might not be amiss for our "Improvement Committee" to discuss this question.

When Ajax shall have dwelt among us some length of time he will learn that the grievances referred to above are of long standing. The citizens of the town will appreciate his help in the arduous task of bringing the railroad company to a sense of its duty towards its patient and long-suffering patrons.
